

Project Update: February 2012

Mr. Tsewang Gurung, a residence of Saldang Village Development Committee, Dolpa has completed 35 days (8th February to 13th March 2012) Village Animal Health Worker training conducted by Nucleus for Empowerment through Skill Transfer (NEST), Pokhara, Nepal and supported by this project. Mr. Gurung is a young energetic man who is also a student. He has committed to work in the village as an animal health worker and contribute towards the conservation of snow leopard.

Team Leader with Trainee