

Project Update: May 2015

Pre- test of questionnaires

The questionnaires prepared for community forest user groups had been pre-tested. Out of 22 questions prepared for pre-testing. Three questionnaires were removed from the list as it were repeating for final survey. The pre-testing of the questionnaire had been completed. The questionnaires are refined and fine tuned.

Figure 1: self interviewing one of the CFMG

Final data collection

The final data collection for forest fire is in full swing. So far, 20 CFMGs have been interviewed and compilation is also in full swing simultaneously. More updates will be posted as and when the project advances.