

Project Update: May 2018

All sampling planned in the project is underway. In the project, we planned to sample bees' nests on transects, but during our sampling we found that the density of the nests is very low per hectare. So, we decided now to do the sampling in quadrats. Currently, we have identified a total of five bees' species exploited by chimpanzees.

Sampling of bees into beehive

Sampling of bees with yellow pan traps

Campsite in the field