

Project Update: April 2018

Some photographs from the fieldwork in Kaptagat forest (from 4th-9th April 2018)

Recording of plant data in Masorta section of Kaptagat forest.

Pressing of collected plant samples for further identification and preservation.

Recording of forest data in Chepkorio section of Kaptagat forest.

Mr. Joshua, a community member and zoology student at Jomo Kenyatta University of Science and Technology, assisting in data collection in Bombo section of Kaptagat forest

Mr. Kiprop, member of the Community Forest Association (CFA), assisting in forest measurement in Chepkorio section of Kaptagat forest.

Ms. Gladys, a forest assistant at Kaptagat forest station, assisting in taking forest measurement.

Tree nursery in Kaptagat forest. Enquired from nursery staff on the most popular indigenous seedlings and their preference by community members.