

Project Update: September 2001

This message is just to confirm that our project "Terskij Coast - 2001: rare species in the threatened habitats" is going successfully. The field stage finished this September. Now we are analyzing the new data and producing the Report.