

Project Update: February 2024

1. Talk and photographic exhibition "Our Other Bees" at the Gallery and Cultural Center Degollado, Guadalajara, Jalisco, September 2023.
2. Third wild bee sampling around Lake Chapala.
3. Presentation in congress: "Human landscapes, landscapes for pollinators: a report on the conservation project of plant-wild bee interaction networks around Lake Chapala" at the 13th Congress of Native Bees in Mesoamerica. CUSUR, University of Guadalajara, Ciudad Guzmán, October 2023.
4. Participation in the Photography Contest during the 18th Student Colloquium of INECOL: "Climate change: a comprehensive look from ecology," October 2023.
5. Talk: "The importance of native bees in Bosque La Primavera: ecology, functional traits, and other curious facts" at Bosque La Primavera, Tlaquepaque, Jalisco, Jesuit University of Guadalajara (ITESO), November 2023.
6. Delivery of wild bee samples to the Entomological Collection of Western Mexico (CECOM), Pátzcuaro, Michoacán, December 2023.
7. Specimen curation, Zapopan, Jalisco, and Pátzcuaro, Michoacán, January 2024
8. Project update meeting with project directors, Pátzcuaro, Michoacán, January 2024
9. Talk: "Biodiversity, native bees, and climate change" at High school Pedro Arrupe, Guadalajara, Jalisco, January 2024.
10. Drawing and storytelling workshop at High school Pedro Arrupe, Guadalajara, Jalisco, January 2024.

Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera

Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera

Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera

Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera
Photo de Apis mellifera

