

Project Update: July 2013

This is another interesting event. We conducted PowerPoint presentations, showed an LCD movie about seagrass dependent marine mammals and finally the children did an experimental seagrass study at beach.

We also conducted a seagrass drawing competition, and lunch was served to participants at the end at our education centre. Please see attached photos of our yesterday seagrass field trip.

