

Nyeri >

Varsity to extend its tree planting drive

Karatina University is set to extend a tree planting programme to other parts of the county after covering 25 primary schools in Nyeri. The programme, funded by the Rufford Foundation, has seen environmental clubs being set up in primary schools to promote tree planting. Deputy VC Aloo Abutho said the university had established the clubs in schools in each of the six sub-counties.

— Joseph Wangui